CAULIGAN

PRESENTED BY

The Senior Class

Lancaster Central High School

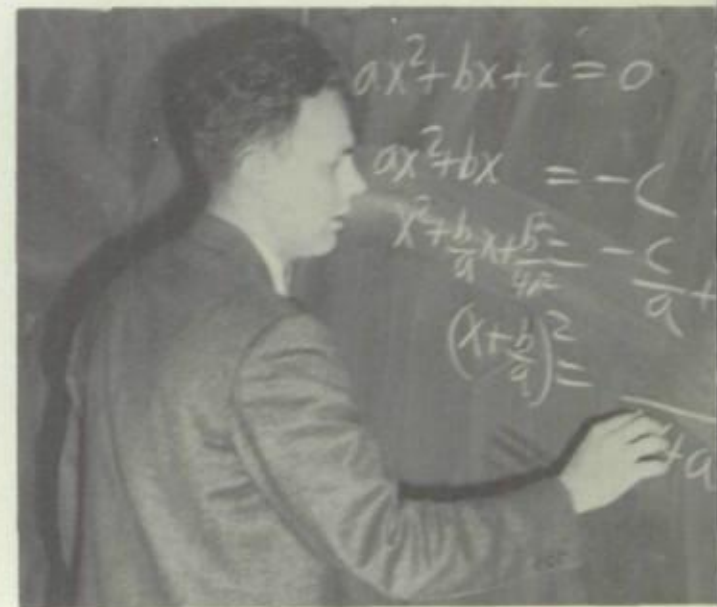

Lancaster, New York

Our Treasures

Dedication

Mr. Rockwell works on math problems with G. Beckendorf.

TO our adviser, Mr. Rockwell, the Class of '55 dedicates this issue of the CAYUGAN. Although carrying the double responsibility of math teacher and J. V. basketball coach, he has successfully organized our social and financial activities for the last three years. We are very grateful for his efforts in our behalf.

THE Class of 1955 here voices its appreciation to Mr. Brown who, as Superintendent of Lancaster Central Schools, has worked tirelessly to improve our system. As graduates we hope to be a credit to the education he has helped to sponsor.

Board of Education

LANCASTER CENTRAL DISTRICT^{#1}

THE Class of 1955 is honored to be the first graduates under the new centralized districts #8, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10.

As our yearbook goes to press, we can see great progress in the building program for this new district. Ground has been broken for the new Court Street Elementary School. The addition to Transit Road School has been laid out. Most important to us is the start of the new high school at Pleasant View Drive and Central Avenue, for which contracts will be let in May.

All of this work, and a great deal more, is due to the time and effort of the members of the Board of Education and their progressive planning for future students of Lancaster. In the group below they are as follows:

Seated: Mr. Thornton, Mr. Smalledge, Mrs. Hummel, Mr. Davidson, Mr. Brown, Mr. Sheehan, Mr. Swanson

Standing: Mr. Grau, Mr. Winter (president), Mr. Over

PRESIDENT
RICHARD ALDINGER

Senior History

WE began to function as a class in the spring of 1952, when Mr. Rockwell, our able adviser, called our first meeting. Our sole activity was a freshman social.

As sophomores we began undertaking bigger projects. Barbara Sandusky was elected president, Pat Golus vice-president, Terry Bernfeld secretary, and Norman Gac treasurer. We staged the most successful magazine sale to date, thus lessening the financial burden of this annual. Our class parties, old clothes dance, skating party and Sophomore Hop rounded out the year's activities.

In our Junior Year we elected Norman Gac president, Donald Burg vice-president, Barbara Weeks secretary, and Karl Ribbeck treasurer. We chose white and gold for our colors and the yellow rose for our flower. The chief event was our Junior Prom, climaxed by the coronation of Dick Aldinger as King and Arlene Swiatek as Queen.

To lead our senior activities the class chose Richard Aldinger president, John LeRoy vice-president, Alice Hughes, secretary and Tyrrell DeMan treasurer. We sponsored a successful Sadie Hawkins Dance, social and splash party. Preparations for our Senior Play and Senior Ball are now under way.

In closing our high school career, we can reflect on a fruitful past, and look toward the future in the words of our motto, "Go on, my friend, and fear nothing."

THIS IS HEAVEN

Junior Prom of 1954

LEADING THE GRAND MARCH ARE QUEEN ARLENE SWIATEK, KING RICHARD ALDINGER, AND ATTENDANTS JOAN KULNISZEWSKI, TYRELL DE MAN, TERESA BERNFELD, RICHARD RUSHER, CAROL SCHMIDT and DONALD DANLER.

AMONG our treasured memories the night of the Junior Prom will always be precious. To carry out its theme we entered the Central Avenue gym under arches of angel hair and roses. Cherubs and clouds of angel hair helped to make the atmosphere "heavenly." This celestial kingdom was ruled by King Richard Aldinger and Queen Arlene Swiatek.

AN innovation took place at L.H.S. when "Dear Diary" was presented in 1954 as the first annual Senior High play.

The plot, appealing to both grown-ups and the younger set, revolved around the imaginative Betty Lou, daughter of the fantastic Maxwell family. Played with ease and grace by Yvonne Wirt, Betty and her make-believe diary almost succeeded in convincing the family that her older sister Connie, (Arlyn Meininghaus) was to elope with her boy friend Marvin, our own Sophomore Ben Willard.

Boyd Davis as Wilbur Maxwell and his pal, Larry Schmitz, were suspected of joining a treacherous gang. Father's financial problems complicate matters. But all is solved when the diary is revealed as a make-believe.

Karen Bellas, Harry Van Brunt, Barbara Bowen, Rose Braun, Beth Lupton, Robert Wahl, Betty Kreager and Emmeline Robinson rounded out the cast.

Yearbook Staff

Y. WIRT, W. Swanson, and J. Weinbach worked on writeups while N. Ramp typed yearbook copy under Miss Huber's supervision. The Senior section was handled by C. Biechlin, M. Giorgi, and J. Molinaro.

P. KLAASESZ was senior photographer, assisted by B. Weeks and S. Green, who kept the schedule of photo appointments. Miss Fritz was adviser to this group. The photography staff was further helped by R. Giza, R. McCutcheon, D. Rau, G. Baker, J. Vandergriff, and V. Rizzi.

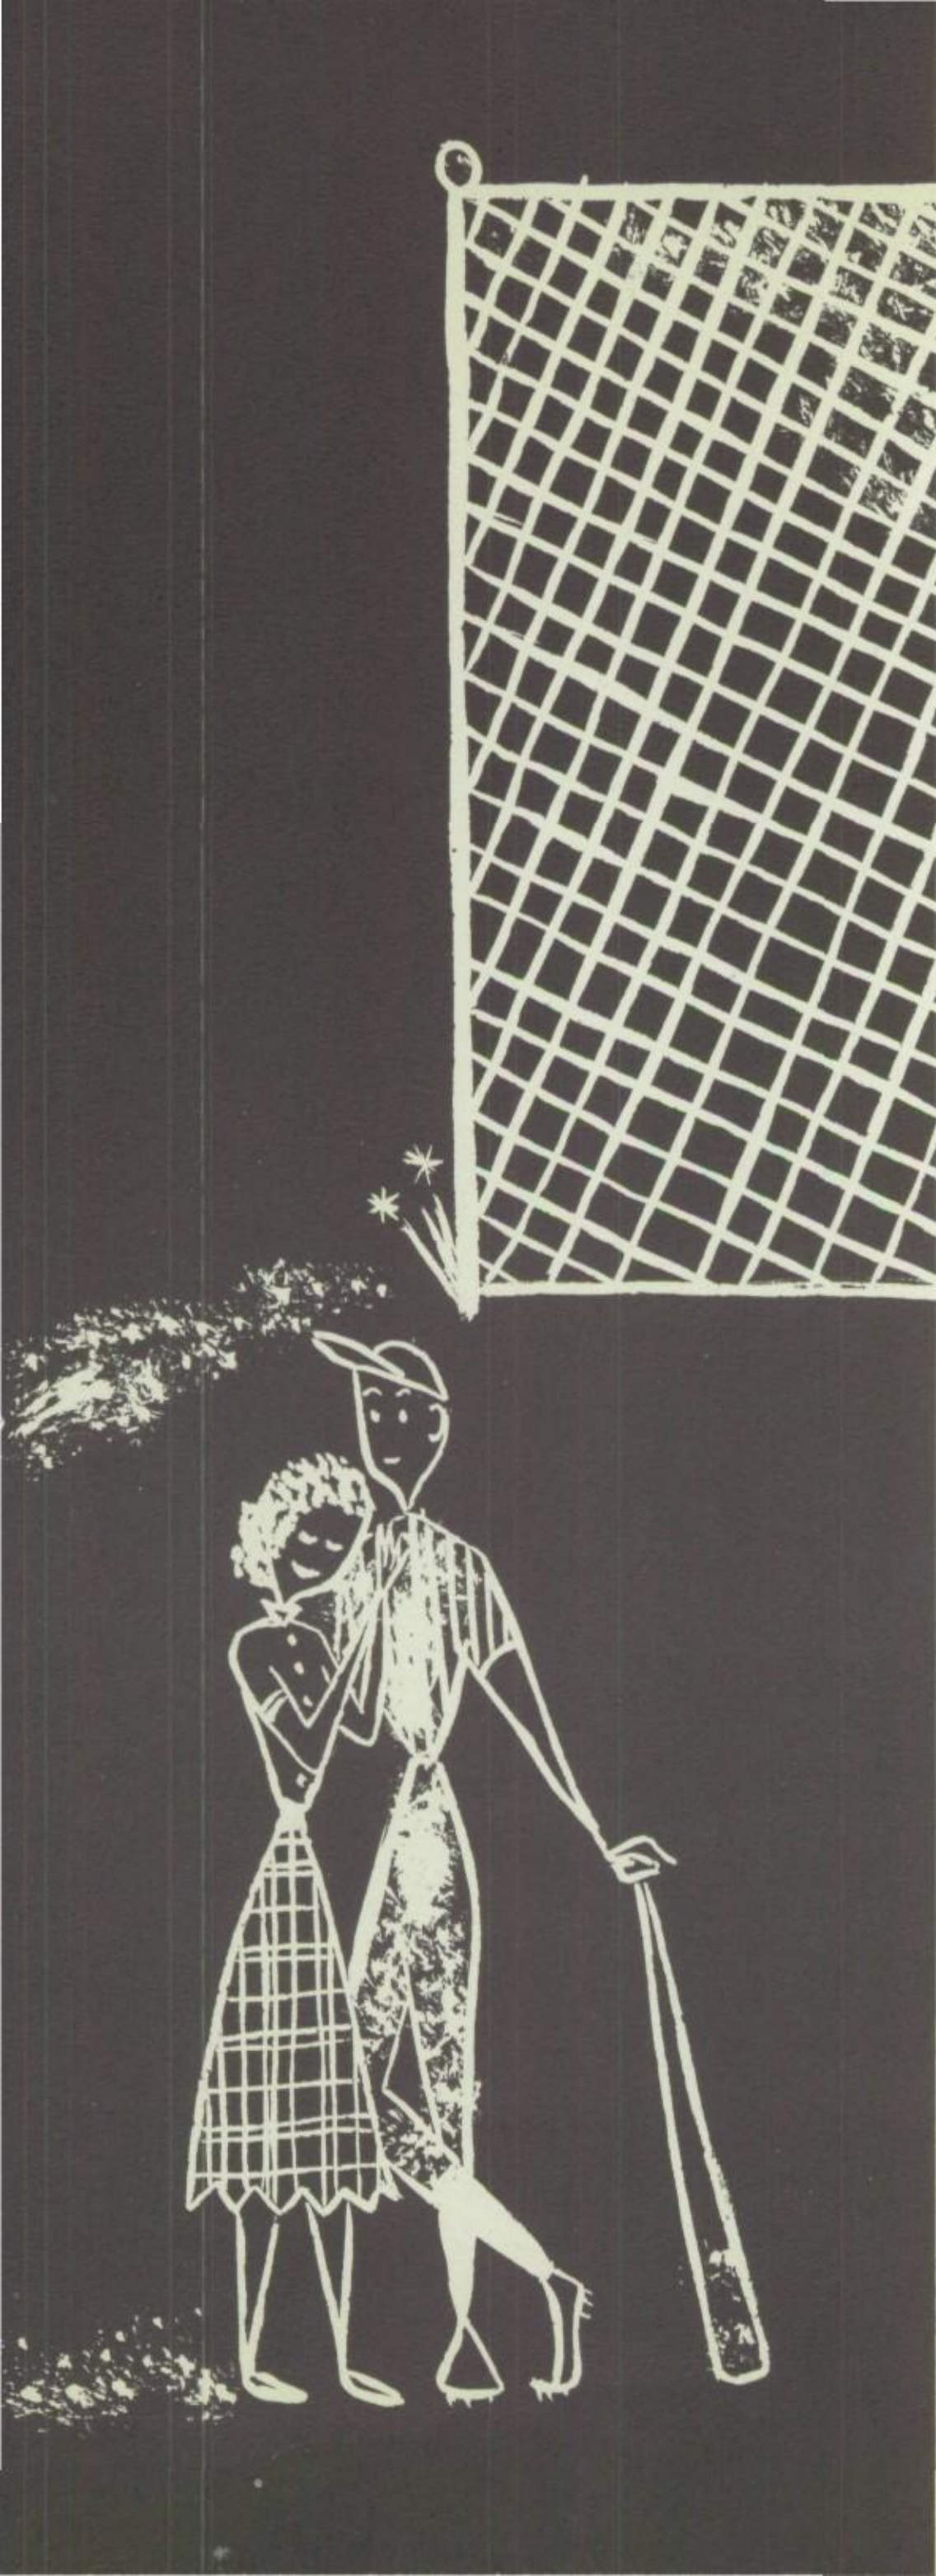

STAFF members attended a profitable yearbook conference at L. H. S. in October.

THE layout committee met weekly under Miss Bates's direction. Its members included R. Van Sickle, M. A. McGuire, E. Lupton (1st row), and B. Weeks, B. Kreager, B. Kroecker, S. Green, M. Musielak, J. Manuszewski, and C. Batt. Their designs for the various pages as well as the art work resulted in our successful book this year.

THE 1954 baseball season was highlighted by the fine pitching of little Norm Derkovitz and a good team defense up the middle of the diamond. One of the most spirited groups to represent Lancaster in the last few years, this team kept the Redskins in contention for the division title until the heartbreaking loss to Cleveland Hill in 11 innings. Two night games at Depew were filled with plenty of thrills for the large turnout at both contests. One game with Depew and one with Williamsville had to be forfeited.

OUR golf team did better than was expected. Their record was three wins and six defeats. Highlights of the season were the Redskins' victories over Depew and Clarence. They took third place in the Section VI Class AA finals. In the Clarence match Bill Swanson tied the low for the season in the E. C. I. C. with his 50 for 12 holes. Co-holder of this record is J. Konsek of Cleveland Hill. Outstanding play also came from Ron Korn and Jim MacPherson.

BOWLING and Rifle Club, like golf and tennis, are sports of genuine value because they carry over from high school into adult life. While not emphasizing outside competition, they do build in the participant the same qualities of sportsmanship and fair play so necessary on the large teams.

Cheerleaders

OUR faithful cheerleaders were in evidence at every athletic contest to give the teams welcome encouragement. Many a time we followed their yells:

"We're from L. H. S. and no one could be prouder; We're here to represent our team and cheer our Alma Mater."

"We're rooting, we're rooting, we're rooting for the team.
We gotta win, we gotta win, the kids say steam!
Come on, Lancaster, beat that team!"

"We got them small, we got them tall
But we're the team that's best of all.
Push their score to the floor,
And raise ours up with a great big roar."

Alma Mater

By the famed Cayuga, that once held life in thrall,
Stands a venerated building, stands a noble hall.
'Tis our Alma Mater, of all our lives a part;
'Tis a place so dear, to the mind, to the heart.
My school, my school, our school forever!
When my heart is bleeding and when for youth I yearn,
Time will then speed backward, memory will return
To the famed Cayuga, where stands the school

The Best of Yesterday

Reserved — Teddy Gonder

Irene,

Go a living doll from a crockadoll.
I don't know what to write Baby except that I Love
you and can't see why we always have to slug
it out. I don't mind your hot temper but I sure don't exactly love my hot red face with your hand print on it. When you're mad you're beautiful, but then you're always beautiful darling.
I got a sore hand now so I can't write.
Don't be mad but your pen leaks a little ink.

even
a fellow student slow. Hope you pass the test and become a senior junior. Shano

Jane
A swell sophomore & also fellow sophomore sufferer of Miss Inedley
lots of luck Ben

Irene
Lots of luck in your junior year and in
your exams.
Irene Okal

To one of the sweetest girls and friends of mine. Hope you and Ted stay together always and I'll invite you to my wedding

Lots of luck in the future
Ray
Weiss

Sophie

To Irene
To a real swell kid
who's lost of fun.
But luck to you in your future
at L. H. S.
Pat Saitowshi
To a cute kid
who's not be so hard on you cause you always don't wear those daring shorts on Bum day they show
just enough.
Best of luck in your Junior year I hope.
This is to a good kid."
From a much better one
Love Pat
